

Short paper sessions 'Education, Formation and the Church Conference'

Wednesday August 25

	Name	Title proposal
session 1 19:40-20:10	Boaz Da	Teaching values as a process of promoting good in classroom: biblical foundations and example of a method.
	Danielle van de Koot en Rinke van Hell	Traces of hope at an Amsterdam primary school
	Fieke Bijnagte	The Imitation of Christ as a pedagogical principle. What does Bavinck say about brokenness and grace and the role of imitation in human formation?
	Hans van Crombrugge	The educator as gardener. Educating between 'original', 'fallen' and 'cultivate' nature.

session 2 20:25-20:55	Peter Christiaan van Olst	Whole Child Development as an Instrument to combat Reductionism in Education
	Mathilde Tempelman-Lam	The medium has a message: About the power of organisational structures in schools
	Fianne de With	Reading biblical texts with young people in secondary school
	Jan Scheele-Goedhart	Sin at work. An empirical analysis of brokenness, sin and grace in occupational contexts and its' implications for education

Thursday August 26

session 1 19:40-20:10	Pavel Hanes	The dimension of liberty in Christian formation towards holiness
	Bob Bowie, Ann Casson, Ann Pittaway and others	School chaplains' work with pupils' experience of brokenness in a time of COVID
	Wilco de Vries	Made for Rest. Augustine on human flourishing and education
	Mark Halvorson	Being with Brokenness in the Co-creation of Curriculum

session 2 20:25-20:55	Maarten Kater	Homiletics and 'My Bright Abyss'
	Bob Bowie	Sin in the system: how unwelcome values frame English Religious Studies exams to exclude mystery, enflame division and discourage hospitality.
	Jeanet Oosterhuis-Stoit, Evelien Vermeulen-Smit, Jan van der Stoep	Contributing to personal formation, based on the Christian identity, in the Job Booster programs
	Hans Schaeffer	Success and Salvation. On Living Christian Practices in a Broken World